SHANAHAN WINS IN THE CONTEST

County Commissioners Decide After Deliberating 2 Hours he Was Elected Supervisor

CONTESTANT WILL APPEAL

Ora Cline Will Fight Out in Circuit
Court Contention he Was Chosen—Last Testimony

The county commissioners this afternoon sustained the election of James Shanahan as road supervisor in District No. 2 Rushville township and found against Ora Cline, who brought the election contest, seeking to have the election of Shanahan declared void and himself elected.

The action of the commissioners came after about two hours' deliberation on the case. The case was completed at noon today and at three o'clock this afternoon the decision had been made public. It is understood that the commissioners took a secret ballot and the result was unanimously in favor of Shanahan. The case has attracted more attention than any case in recent years and developed into a warm fight between the north half and the south half of the road district.

It was the first time in the history of the county that a contest developed over such a minor office and this tended to lend interest to the case. The case will not end in the commissioners' court as an appeal will be taken to the circuit court. This was stated definitely by the attorneys for Cline immediately following the decision.

The defense introduced a total of 26 witnesses who testified to voting for Shanahan. One witness, who would have testified to voting for Shanahan, is visiting in Kentucky, making a total of 27 votes accounted for by Shanahan. There were 29 men swore they voted for Cline.

According to the returns, Shanahan received 39 votes. Cline claimed he had twelve votes that were either counted for Shanahan or were not counted. The question before the commissioners hinged on these twelve votes. There was no evidence introduced tending to show the men who voted for Dagler.

The evidence was all completed by ten o'clock this morning and then the closing argument before the board took place. The defense contended that the ballots were the best evidence in determining who was elected and pointed out that the men who voted for Shanahan had their ballots to show for it while the men who swore they voted for Cline had no evidence of the fact. "This is an unfortunate case," said George W. Young, "over a small office. The successful candidate can only make $100 a year."

In his argument to the board Mr. Young contended that the plaintiff had attempted by inference to show that W. A. Alexander had pulled out the votes cast for Cline and substituted those of Shanahan. He declared there was no evidence along this line and if there had been any fraud it had not been proven. "Mr. Alexander is as pure as Caesar's wife," declared Mr. Young.

John Kiplinger, for the plaintiff, stated that to prove fraud it was necessary to take the circumstances into consideration. "The circumstances," said Mr. Kiplinger, "show that fraud is sticking out of this thing from one end to the other." Mr. Kiplinger stated that it was only natural for the people of the south half to want a road supervisor as it was to their advantage and stated that it was not peculiar that the twenty-nine men should come into court and testify to voting for Cline. He then recalled the recount of the votes which showed one less vote for Shanahan than he received at the

BRIEF RESPIRE FROM THE COLD

Following Slight Rise in Temperature
Tonight, There Will be
Another Drop Tomorrow

FIVE BELOW LAST NIGHT

Very little relief from the present cold wave is promised by Elwood Kirkwood, county observer, though slightly rising temperature is anticipated tonight. He said the barometer this afternoon indicated warmer weather but that the appearance of the clouds made him think that any increase in temperature would be short-lived and that it would be followed by another cold wave. This squared with the Indiana weather bureau's prediction.

The government thermometer at Maunzy registered 5 below zero last night and this morning at 7 o'clock had risen to 10 above. At 1:30 o'clock this afternoon the temperature was 20 above zero. The temperature here at the same hour was 21.

LEE SENT LETTERS OVER HIS OWN NAME

Stenographer at Democratic Headquarters Says They Were Written on Progressive Letterheads

GOVERNOR'S PROBE STARTS

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 12.—Taking of testimony in the hearing on charges against Edwin M. Lee, member of the public service commission, was started today after Gov. Goodrich again refused the request of attorneys for Lee that the case be continued.

The governor in denying the request declared that the question to be determined was whether or not Lee was appointed to the commission as a progressive while he was really a democrat in violation of the law. He stated that this was not a question of law but of facts which could be decided immediately by testimony.

Attorneys for the commissioner declared that the act under which Lee's removal is asked confers judicial powers on the governor contrary to the constitution.

Gertrude Greenberg, a stenographer, employed at the democratic headquarters in the last campaign, was the first witness. She testified that she mailed about 1,000 letters written on letterheads of the progressive party with Lee's name signed. She said the signature was made with a rubber stamp.

CARTHAGE MAN FINED.

Frank Miller of Carthage entered a plea of guilty to a charge of provoking in circuit court today and was fined one dollar and costs. He was indicted by the grand jury in the batch of twenty returned this week. His arrest accounted for sixteen of the twenty indictments. Miller was alleged to have provoked James Draper, owner of a meat market in Carthage.

BOYS AND GIRLS RECEIVE MEDALS

Knightstown Home Boy is Winner in Amateur Dairymen Contest
Conducted by Purdue.

FOR THIS STATE DISTRICT

Much of Money Going For Textiles
is Unwisely Spent, Short Course
Speaker Declares.

Lafayette, Ind., Jan. 12.—Four hundred boys and girls took part in the 1916 dairy club contest and today at the Farmers' Short Course at Purdue University, the last day of regular instruction, medals were presented to the winners. It was one of the most interesting features of the day's program which was one of many interesting events. The presentation of medals took place at the second day's session of the Indiana State Dairy Association convention.

Guy Aders of Spencer County is the champion amateur dairymen of the state, having been declared the winner of first place in the 1916 contest. Second place went to Gentry Russell of Frankfort. Young Aders, in addition to receiving the championship medal, will be sent to Washington, D. C., to call on President Wilson, going at the expense of the Indiana Silo Company which offered the trip to the boy or girl standing highest in the southern Indiana district. Young Russell will go to Washington at the expense of Schlosser Brothers, creamery men.

In the eastern Indiana district Theodore Robins, a boy from the Indiana Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans' Home at Knightstown and Anson Linsey of Economy, Ind., were the winners. Miss Nellie Halt of Plymouth won the northern Indiana championship and the South Bend Creamery Company Scholarship. About 40 young people in all attended the Short Course this week as a reward for winning high places in the contest, the scholarships being worth $25 each and being offered by various creameries, banks, merchants and farmers' institutes over the state.

The girls' and boys' dairy club contest was such a great success during the past year that it is expected nearly 1,000 young people will enlist in the 1917 contest. Each boy and girl keeps a record of dairy cows and also feeds and cares for the cows. Each contestant feeds the dairy animals in the old unsanitary way for one month and then for a month feeds according to the best approved methods. The records show the improvement in the quantity and quality of the milk and cream the second month. Then each contestant writes a summary of the two months' work. The record of young Aders, the state champion, showed that as a result of proper care and feeding of dairy cows he increased his profit on five cows $70.41 in a month, the profit for the first month under the unimproved method being $109.51 and the profit for the second month under the improved system being $179.92.

Intensive Farming.

To show Indiana dairymen what the people on the Channel Islands in the English channel 90 miles off the coast of England, have accomplished in intensive farming, Charles L. Hill of Rosendale, Wis., told the members of the dairy association today that one of these islands, Guernsey, was the only place in the world where no manure was wasted. The agricultural exports from the Island of Jersey with a population of 45,000 and an area of 15,000 acres, one half of which is unoccupied, amount to $350 an acre annually from every acre included in the island. Its agriculture is the most intensive of any place in the world.

ABNER INLOW SUCCEUMS

Dies at Age of 79 Years North of
Homer of Pneumonia

Abner Inlow, 79 years, died yesterday afternoon at four o'clock at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Oliver Fletcher, north of Homer, following a long illness from senility and pneumonia. Mr. Inlow was a former resident of Waldron but had made his home for the past few years with his daughter. Mrs. Fletcher is the only survivor. The funeral services will be conducted Saturday morning at 10:30 o'clock in the Christian Union church at Homer and burial will take place in the Hurst cemetery.

SPECIAL MEETINGS

A men's big meeting will be held at the New Salem M. P. church Sunday afternoon at 2:30 and will be addressed by the Rev. Mr. Iliff. George Suess of this city and J. Q. Baskett will assist in the music. At the same time a women's meeting will be held at the New Salem M. E. church and will be addressed by the Rev. Mr. Abbott.

FOURTEEN MORE BILLS RETURNED

Grand Jury Turns Out Another Batch
Today, Bringing Total For Term
up to Seventy-nine.

NONE MADE PUBLIC TODAY

The grand jury returned an additional batch of 14 indictments this afternoon, bringing the total number for the term up to seventy-nine. The grand jury had two additional witnesses to examine, but no more indictments were expected. Unless the grand jury is needed this will be the last session for the present term.

The grand jury met today with but five members present, John Jordan, one of the members, being ill. There was some talk of adjourning for the day, but it was found to be legal to continue the session with but five members.

None of the fourteen indictments returned today was made public and will not be until the arrests are made. Judge Sparks ordered the bench warrants issued.

TWO IMPORTANT BILLS INTRODUCED

Measures Providing For Votes For
Women and State Wide Prohibition Before Legislature.

W. R. JINNETT HAS TWO BILLS

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 12.—Prohibition and woman suffrage bills were presented to the Indiana legislature today. The dry bill backed by the Indiana dry federation was presented in the senate by Thomas Dorrell of Greenwood and in the house by Frank E. Wright of Randolph county.

Lieut. Gov. Bush sent the dry bill to the senate committee on rights and franchises instead of public morals as was expected. This committee is decidedly dry in its tendencies.

The prohibition bill would prohibit the manufacture or sale of liquor within the state after January 1, 1918 except for medicinal purposes.

The administration bill creating a highway commission was introduced by Senator Dobyns of Greensburg in the upper house and by Luke Duffy of Indianapolis in the lower. Dobyns represents Rush, Decatur and Hancock.

Representative Jinnett of Manilla, Rush county, presented two bills in the house, one providing for abolishment of the office of legal clerk to the public service commission and the other limiting the salary of the quartermaster general to $800 a year. By these bills Rep. Jinnett hoped to save the state $7,000 a year. The legal clerk receives $6,000 and the quartermaster $1,800.

SPECIAL EVENTS SET FOR SUNDAY

Men's and Women's Big Meetings
Will be Held and Also One for Young People

EVANGELISTS TO TAKE PART

The Rev. J. W. McFall of Connersville Preaches at M. E. Church
on Christ's Saving Power

Three special meetings in connection with the evangelistic meetings being held at three churches will take place Sunday. There will be a men's big meeting at the U. P. church, to be addressed by Dr. D. D. Dodds; a women's big meeting to be conducted by Mrs. Harry Ross, wife of the evangelistic singer, at St. Paul's M. E. church; a meeting for young people at the First Presbyterian church to be addressed by Dr. F. W. Grossman and his daughter, Ethel Lee, who is in charge of the young people's work of the Presbyterian church in Indiana. Dr. Grossman will speak on "Child Training" and ladies octette will sing.

Dr. Dodds took the parable of Lazarus and Dives as the basis of his sermon at the U. P. church last night. Tonight he will preach on the subject, "A Sensation in Heaven." A large audience was present last evening. At the First Presbyterian church last night Dr. Grossman based his remarks upon Matthew, 22:37, the chief commandment, supreme love of God.

There was a very good attendance at the St. Paul's M. E. church last evening. The song service included a solo by Harry Ross "Throw a Line" and a duet by Mr. and Mrs. Ross. The sermon was by the Rev. J. W. McFall of the First Methodist church of Connersville. Taking for his text, "Thou shalt call his name Jesus for He shall save His people from their sins," he delivered a forceful address. He analyzed the words "sins," "their," "save," and "Jesus," bringing out the fact that it would be a bright world were it not for the word "sin," and showing the many results of it. By "their" sins the speaker distinguished between the sins we own and those we possess; that is the suffering we have from our own sins and those of someone else. "Sin is a big word but save is a bigger one," continued the speaker, proving the all-saving power of God; and in dealing with the last word he urged all to depend upon Jesus to save and forgive. His points were brought out with appropriate examples and stories.

"Christ has reasons for stating that love to God was the chief commandment," stated Dr. Grossman at the First Presbyterian. "They may have been such as these: the commandment was just, sufficient, efficient, universal in its application, essential and the results produced."

Under the latter heading, the minister developed a practical address, saying that love enlarges the heart and hatred contracts, and that the more one loves, the more he can live.

"He who loves God," he continued, "must have capacity to take in the infinite. In our littleness we only love those who love us, which is easy to do. If we love God we must love our enemy, which means considerable exercise, but the very effort means development of the capacity for more love."

"Another result is that we become more like those we love and are influenced by that which we admire. If a man admires skepticism, he becomes a skeptic. If he enjoys impurity, he becomes impure. If he delights in dishonesty, he becomes dishonest. If we love Christianity we become Christians; if we love God we become Godlike."

"If we loved God supremely, and our neighbor as ourselves, our whole

Insure your horses, mules, cattle against death from any cause except fire and lightning.

It will be solely a company of you Rush county farmers run exclusively by and organized by you on day of organization, as everything proposed that day must meet with your approval by a majority before it can become part of the by-laws.

It will come as near being insurance at cost as it is possible to make it, as you will only pay for the actual loss plus the light expense of running the business affairs of the company.

Why can't this organization be just as much of a success as the Farmers Fire, the different telephone exchanges throughout the county?

In fact, there never has been a co-operative organization of the Rush county farmers but what has made a success and there is a reason—they are on the square.

You will note that application membership blank coupon is brief and the reason is that we are merely suggesting to you and soliciting your membership, because on February 1st, 1917, the day of organization you have a voice as to all the details of the by-laws and rules under which the company shall be run.

You will note in application for membership coupon the charter membership fee is $3.00. It will no doubt be $5.00 after the company is organized same as Rush County Fire Insurance Company fee, so get in as charter, and in years to come you can say I am a charter member.

Clip out application for membership coupon and mail to L. R. Webb, Rushville, R. R. 3 and he will immediately notify you that your membership has been accepted. We already have quite a big membership subscribed and hope you will lend a helping hand in making this one of the big organizations of Rush county.

L. R. WEBB, CLEN MILLER, Organizers.

In filling in blank for the amount of insurance desired for first year will say the average farmer is taking about $500.00.

Application for Membership

I hereby apply for charter membership in the Rush County Farmers Live Stock Insurance Company of Rush County, Indiana, for which I agree to pay on or before Thursday, February 1, 1917, the sum of $3.00 to Clen Miller, at which time he agrees to organize the Rush County Farmers Live Stock Insurance Company, which sum shall be used by him to pay the costs of incorporating and organizing said company.

Nothing to be insured but horses and cattle. Anything insured in other companies, the loss shall be pro-rated between this and other or others. To be run on same plan as Rush County Farmers Fire Insurance company. Losses pro-rated and assessment made.

It is agreed that a meeting shall be held on said first day of February, 1917, at which time said charter members shall organize by the election of officers for the ensuing year, and adopt by-laws.

I further agree to carry $----- insurance in said company for the first year after its organization.

Sore throat may mean any number of disagreeable and perhaps dangerous things to come. Ward off sore throat by using Turpo liberally. Rub it in.

The turpentine penetrates; the camphor and menthol cool and soothe the surface. Turpo takes the place of turpentine and lard—it's the old-fashioned remedy in a newer, better form.

It has many other uses besides relieving colds—it heals cuts, burns, bruises, sprains; and relieves headache, neuralgia, and other aches and pains.

Buy Turpo at any drug store. The 50c size is three times as large as the 25c size.

Kicked by Carranza.

After months of palavering and dickering with Carranza we are right where we were before it commenced.

We are in the position of the dog that has just been kicked and doesn't possess the nerve to bite back.

General Carranza has officially and definitely refused to ratify the protocol signed by the American and Mexican commissioners, and by this act has again demonstrated the Mexican contempt for everything American.

Kicked! Just plain kicked again! If the American people have no pride left—if the honor of our country and the lives of our people mean nothing—What about the American Pocketbooks. Even the most craven wretch on earth is sensitive to the welfare of his purse.

It would be of interest to know just what this Mexican fiasco is costing the country per day. With Pershing and his twelve thousand men in Mexico, with thousands and thousands of National Guardsmen sucking their thumbs on the border, with every available officer and man in the regular army doing police duty along the Rio Grande, the cost is piling away into the millions.

The American taxpayer is putting up this money and he gets nothing in return for it. He doesn't even gain the respect of other countries and other peoples.

Two facts are self evident. Carranza hasn't the power to take Villa if he would; he hasn't the inclination to do so if he could. Time has proven the truth of both of these statements.

Another one. Carranza hasn't the power to protect American lives and American property in Mexico. And he wouldn't if he could, for Carranza is a Mexican of Mexicans, as stubborn as a mule and as blind as a bat to all things except his own asininity.

And yet we wheedle and dawdle and palaver!

We keep an army on a war footing at enormous expense to the tax pay-

PIMPLY? WELL, DON'T BE!

People Notice It. Drive Them Off with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

A pimply face will not embarrass you much longer if you get a package of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The skin should begin to clear after you have taken the tablets a few nights.

Cleanse the blood, the bowels and the liver with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the successful substitute for calomel—there's never any sickness or pain after taking them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do that which calomel does, and just as effectively, but their action is gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating.

No one who takes Olive Tablets is ever cursed with "a dark brown taste," a bad breath, a dull, listless, "no good" feeling, constipation, torpid liver, bad disposition or pimply face.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color.

Dr. Edwards spent years among patients afflicted with liver and bowel complaints, and Olive Tablets are the immensely effective result.

Take one or two nightly for a week. See how much better you feel and look. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

Regarding dressmaking Miss Beall told the women of the home economics section that 15 per cent of the average income was spent for clothing and that better value may be obtained if a part, at least, of the money is spent in buying materials to be made up at home. She explained how to use patterns and how to handle materials to avoid damaging them.

An informal tea for the women attending the Short Course was another feature of the program today. The students in the home economics department of Purdue were the hostesses. An exhibit of college girls' work was on display, showing samples of sewing, cooking and canning.

Yesterday afternoon President and Mrs. Winthrop E. Stone of Purdue entertained the members of the Indiana Home Economics Association at a reception at the president's home.

"Prevention is the slogan of all public health work," Dr. C. B. Kern of the Indiana State Board of Health told the women at the Short Course today. Modern public health means more than just absence of disease. It may be divided into hygiene and sanitation. Women should be interested in the great work of living correctly because 95 per cent of the infectious diseases are nursed at home by mothers. Next to the children themselves the ones who suffer most are the mothers."

Prof. E. B. Hart of the University of Wisconsin told the dairymen and live stock breeders today that balanced rations meant success in feeding and breeding. Experiments, he said, had shown that the feeding of wheat as part of the ration to Short-horns and Holsteins was harmful. The work showed that there is a toxic substance in wheat and especially in the embryo of the wheat which interferes with reproduction. This can be overcome by the use of proper roughage.

"Early hatching," said Charles S. Brewster, "makes poultry more profitable." The early hatched cockerel sells for the highest price and is out of the way early, giving the pullets a better chance to grow. The early hatched pullet develops early and is laying in the fall and winter when prices are highest. In order to lay by October 1 Leghorns should be hatched about April 1. Incubators and brooders are necessary for hatching as the farmer does not have enough setting hens. Anyone with a

FEELS BETTER IN EVERY WAY

Mrs. Julia Ehrman Tells of the Big Benefits Derived From Tanlac

Fort Wayne, Ind. Jan. 11.—"I feel better in every way since taking Tanlac," said Mrs. Julia Ehrman, 60 years old, wife of Fred H. Ehrman, machinist at the Indiana Road Machine Company, who lives at 711 Frederick street.

"I had inflammatory rheumatism so severe I had to crawl up and down stairs at times. Rheumatic pains and swellings in my knees, feet and ankles bothered me. I couldn't sleep at night."

"The rheumatic pains and swellings have been greatly relieved since I have taken Tanlac and I feel better, in every way now. I sleep fine now. I certainly am satisfied with the results I gained from Tanlac."

Tanlac, the Master Medicine, is especially beneficial for stomach, liver and kidney trouble, catarrhal complaints, rheumatism, nervousness, sleeplessness, loss of appetite and the like. Tanlac is now sold exclusively in Rushville at F. E. Wolcott's drug store; in Arlington at Mrs. L. T. Davis's; in Carthage at J. H. McCarthy and Sons, and in Milroy at Barton and Sheppard's.

Cottage Hotel vs. Railroad
The Cottage Hotel took two games out of three from the Mauzy Company team last night in the Commercial League. The Cottage Hotel team won the first two games and then fell down and Mauzy Co. captured the third game. All of the scores were close and on the three games the winners received but seventy more pins than the losers. The total pins were: Cottage Hotel 1,759; Mauzy Company 1,689. Next week's games are as follows: Wednesday night—Cottage Hotel vs. Railroaders; Thursday night—Republican Co. vs. Mauzy Co. The scores of last night's games follow:

flock of 100 hens can afford an incubator."

"The old farm hen is worth caring for" said L. L. Jones, Purdue's poultry demonstration farms over the state show good results. On each of eight of these farms the chickens, properly cared for, realized a profit of $175 in a year and there were only 124 hens on a farm. Each fowl brought in a $3 a year and the net profit on each was more than $1 with all the eggs and chickens used at home as extra profit."

To fight garden and small fruit insects, P. W. Mason told his hearers today, one must keep the garden premises clean from rubbish, weeds and remnants of crops; the plants must be kept vigorous; there must be frequent cultivation; and insecticides must be used. Promptness in discovering the presence of an insect pest is important.

Tomato Growing.

That tomato growing in Indiana is profitable, was the statement made today by W. H. Stevenson, who told how to make money out of such a crop. The industry is growing rapidly in this state. The climatic conditions of the state are well adapted to tomato growing. Probably the factor which limits the profits most is the wrong starting of young plants. Seed should be sown in hotbeds about March 1 to 15 and three weeks later should be transplanted.

Then before outdoor planting the top of the hotbed should be taken off and the plants allowed to harden. The water supply should be cut off just before the last transplanting and when they are removed to the field the soil should be watered liberally. Tomatoes should be transplanted into a dry soil. The Purdue experiment station recommends the application of 500 pounds of a mixture of nitrate of soda, tankage, acid phosphate and potash to each acre.

The value of manure was emphasized by S. C. Jones in a lecture before the farmers today. He said that the annual production of manure in Indiana had a total value of approximately $45,000,000. It is also estimated that at least a third of this

THE DRINKING OF WATER

(By M. C. Lucas, M. D.)

The general conclusions of the latest medical scientists proves that drinking of plenty of pure water both between meals and with one's meals is beneficial to health. It has also been proven by means of the X-rays and actual tests upon many healthy young men that the drinking of water with meals is not harmful to digestion. Therefore if you want to keep healthy drink plenty of pure water (not ice water.) If you ever suffer from backache, lumbago, rheumatism or any of the symptoms of kidney trouble—such as deep colored urine, sediment in urine, getting out of bed at night frequently and other troublesome effects, take a little Anuric before meals. These Anuric tablets can be obtained at almost any drug store in this country.

American men and women must guard constantly against kidney trouble, because we eat too much and all our food is rich. Our blood is filled with uric acid which the kidneys strive to filter out, they weaken from overwork, become sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and the result is kidney trouble, bladder weakness and a general decline in health.

When your kidneys feel like lumps of lead, when your back hurts or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night, when you suffer with sick headache or dizzy, nervous spells, acid stomach, or you have rheumatism when the weather is bad, ask your druggist for Anuric. Because of uric acid in over-abundance in the system, backache, pains here and there, rheumatism, gout, gravel, neuralgia and sciatica result. Anuric is more potent than lithia, and consequently you need no longer fear muscular or articular rheumatism or gout, or many other diseases which are dependent on an accumulation of uric acid within the body.—Adv.)

"Culture and Utilization of the Soy Bean" was the title of J. C. Beavers' lecture. He said that the practice of growing soy beans in the rows with corn was rapidly increasing in popularity. It is profitable to do this, he said, because by "hogging off" the beans and corn farmers are securing a dollar a bushel for the corn and a gain of $10 an acre additional for the beans when pork is valued at eight cents.

SOCIETY

The members of the Tri Kappa sorority will be entertained by Mrs. Jack Knecht at her home in North Harrison street on Monday evening.

The Coterie Club will be entertained on Monday afternoon by Mrs. C. M. George at her home in North Main street. This meeting follows the holiday recess of several weeks.

About 25 couples enjoyed the dance given in the Knights of Pythias hall last evening. Mitchell's two piece orchestra played excellent music for the informal program of dances.

In celebrating his 8th birthday, Robert Pitman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Pitman, entertained a few of his schoolmates yesterday afternoon. After a jolly afternoon at playing games, refreshments were served.

The members of the Pollyanna class of the St. Paul's M. E. Sunday School had a pitch-in supper at the church last evening, there being eight present. A delicious two course supper was served followed by music and a social good time.

The members of the D. T. Club are being entertained by their husbands this evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Frank. They are being entertained at dinner and the nature of the entertainment is being kept as a surprise.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Wilson are entertaining at their home in East Ninth street today Mrs. Wilson's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Will Parker and family, of nine children and two grandchildren, who are making the return trip to Bever, Okla., in machines after visiting in Lexington, Ky.

Mrs. J. C. Sexton entertained at a delightful little bridge yesterday afternoon when her guests were the members of the Grand Club. At the conclusion of the bridge games, which occupied the greater part of the afternoon, the guests were invited into the dining room where the table was prettily decorated with a large bouquet of scarlet carnations. Here a delicious two course dinner was served. The next regular meeting of the club will be with Mrs. Will M. Sparks.

The C. W. B. M. of the Sexton Christian church held their regular monthly meeting Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Weiss. Mrs. Ode Winkler had charge of the meeting during which the following numbers were given: scripture reading and prayer by Mrs. Winkler; secretary's report and roll call by Mrs. Orville Porter; offering; prayer by Mrs. Elsworth Kiser; bible study, Mrs. Fred Oldham; missionary letter read by Mrs. Porter; reading, "A Friend Indeed," by Mrs. Kiser; bible questions of Mrs. Earl Grubbs; hidden answers conducted by Mrs. Weiss. Visitors at the meeting were Mrs. Elbridge Jones, Miss Fern Jones and Mrs. John Lewark. The next meeting of the society will be with Mrs. Ode Winkler.

"TIZ"—A JOY TO SORE, TIRED FEET

Use "Tiz" for aching, burning, puffed-up feet and corns or callouses.

Good-bye, sore feet, burning feet, swollen feet, tender feet, tired feet. Good-bye, corns, callouses, bunions and raw spots. No more shoe tightness, no more limping with pain or drawing up your face in agony. "Tiz" is magical, acts right off. "Tiz" draws out all the poisonous exudations which puff up the feet. Use "Tiz" and wear smaller shoes. Use "Tiz" and forget your foot misery. Ah! how comfortable your feet feel. Get a 25-cent box of "Tiz" now at any druggist or department store. Don't suffer. Have good feet, glad feet, feet that never swell, never hurt, never get tired. A year's foot comfort guaranteed or money refunded.

Mrs. David Marshall of west of the city was the guest of Mrs. Joseph Pugh at her home today.

Officers will be elected at the meeting of the Monday Circle to be held Monday at the home of Mrs. Roy Waggener in North Morgan street. Suggestions will also be made for the program for next year. Mrs. Parsons will read a paper on "Historical Dramas—How Authentic."

A short business meeting of the Women's Home Missionary society of the St. Paul's M. E. church was held at the church yesterday afternoon following the evangelistic meeting. Several business matters were discussed and plans were completed for sending the barrel this evening to a home missionary. The articles have been prepared by the members of the society.

The Willing Workers of the Christian church of Orange were entertained yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Kate Bowen at her home in Orange when 14 members of the society were present. During the business meeting, plans for the reception to be given this evening in the church honoring the new pastor, the Rev. Mr. Francis, were made. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostesses.

A literary and musical program was given at the meeting of the Social Circle of the Methodist church of Orange held with Mrs. Elmer Stevens yesterday afternoon. Those taking part in the program were Mrs. Jesse Bowen, Mrs. Will Stewart, Mrs. Etta Henry, Mrs. Grace Arnold, Mrs. Alva George, Mrs. Ernest Applegate, and Mrs. M. M. Anderson. The guests enjoyed the service of delicious refreshments. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Alva George.

Mrs. Fred Caldwell celebrated her birthday in a very pleasant manner today when a dinner was given at her home in North Morgan street in her honor. The whole affair was in the nature of a surprise that had been planned by Mr. Caldwell. An elegant turkey dinner was served at high noon at the dining table which was attractive with the color scheme of pink and white. Covers for the dinner were laid for Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Caldwell of Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Jones, Miss Helen Caldwell, Mrs. Fannie Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. Orval Herkless and daughter, Jean.

Honoring the birthday of Watson Miller, the girls belonging to the S. O. D. H. Club entertained the young men in the club last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Mahin. The hostesses served a bountiful two course pitch-in supper at 7 o'clock. The evening was spent in playing games and hearing music. Aside from the 18 club members who were present, there were several invited guests including Miss Mable Krammes, Miss Donnie Hilligoss, Miss Gladys Hill, Miss Bess Weidner, and Will English. The regular meeting of the club will be held on Thursday evening of next week with Miss Frances Thompson.

Miss Vera Winship, sister of Mr. and Mrs. Will Winship of Milroy, and Hubert Thomas, son of Merritt Thomas of near Milroy, were quietly married yesterday morning at the home of the bride's parents, the ceremony being read by the Rev. Clyde S. Black of Brookville, formerly of Milroy. Only a few friends and relatives were present. The bridal couple left immediately for a short honeymoon after which they will be at home in Greensburg where Mr. Thomas is bookkeeper for the Pulse and Porter firm.

Mrs. Thomas has been, until recently, a librarian in Cincinnati. She is a graduate of the local high school and a member of the Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority at Depauw where she also graduated. She is exceedingly popular among her many friends in and about this city.

DOES RHEUMATISM BOTHER YOU?

Many Doctors Use Musterole

So many sufferers have found relief in Musterole that you ought to buy a small jar and try it. Just spread it on with the fingers. Rub it in. First you feel a gentle glow, then a delicious, cooling comfort. Musterole routs the twinges, loosens up stiffened joints and muscles.

Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. It penetrates to the seat of pain and drives it away, but does not blister the tenderest skin. It takes the place of the mussy, old fashioned mustard plaster.

Musterole is recommended for bronchitis, croup, asthma, pleurisy, lumbago, neuralgia, sprains, bruises, stiff neck, headache and colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia).

SHANAHAN WINS CONTEST

election and then pointed out that yesterday afternoon the extra ballot appeared in the court room.

Mr. Kiplinger asked the commissioners why it was that if Shanahan had thirty-eight votes he did not produce them in court as Cline had done with his twenty-nine voters.

Late yesterday afternoon one witness was found who had voted for Shanahan without legal right. This was Esta Webb. Webb testified that he voted for Shanahan as he had been informed that he had a right to vote. Webb, on cross examination stated that he moved to the Robert A. Innis farm, northwest of the city on about November 20. He admitted that he had been a resident of this road district only about twenty days. He testified that at the presidential election he voted south of the city. He stated that if he voted without legal right he did so unintentionally as he had been informed that he had a right to vote.

During the testimony of William A. Alexander a wrangle ensued between him and John Kiplinger, attorney for Cline, which brought up an old road case. Kiplinger, attorney attempted to show that Alexander was interested in the election of Shanahan because Shanahan had stood up for Mr. Alexander in the litigation of a road case that was tried and is still pending in court. On cross-examination he admitted that he and Shanahan were good friends and that Shanahan had testified for him in the road litigation but denied that this had any particular thing to do with his supporting

NOTICE OF FINAL SETTLEMENT OF ESTATE.

Notice is hereby given to the creditors, heirs and legatees of Wear Crawford, deceased, to appear in the Rush Circuit Court, held at Rushville, Indiana, on the 5th day of February, 1917, and show cause, if any, why Final Settlement Accounts with the estate of said decedent should not be approved; and said heirs are notified to then and there make proof of heirship, and receive their distributive shares.

Witness, the Clerk of said Court, this 11th day of January, 1917.

him in the road supervisors election. The argument between Alexander and Kiplinger became so warm that the board of commissioners put a stop to it by declaring it had nothing to do with the case in question.

Mr. Alexander stated that he was the inspector at the election and described the canvass of the vote after the polls were closed. He stated that after the ballots had been counted the ballots were placed back in the box and a string tied around the box. This box was then taken home by him and after supper on the night of Dec. 16 his son, Donald Alexander brought the box of ballots to the office of J. V. Young, trustee. Mr. Alexander was emphatic in his denial of any tampering with the ballots.

"If at any time after the ballots were counted you took out twelve ballots belonging to Cline and placed twelve votes for Shanahan in the box you may so state?" asked Geo. W. Young, attorney for Shanahan.

"No sir, I did not," declared Alexander.

On cross-examination Mr. Alexander stated that he had promised William Dagler he would vote for him but declared when the votes began coming in so fast for Shanahan he declared that he knew Dagler was decided to switch and cast his ballot for Shanahan. Mr. Alexander not getting many votes because Dagler's ballots were pointed and were of a different color from the other ballots. He testified that he voted along in the middle of the afternoon. The poll book showed that he was the thirty-ninth man to vote.

ANITA STEWART SAYS—

A Bad Dress For Business.

The other morning I decided to journey to the Vitagraph studios in the trolley. Somehow I just felt as though I wanted to be among people to feel the jostle and hustle of the work-a-day world and to knock elbows with my fellow men.

Donning a dark blue chiffon broadcloth dress embroidered in dark shades of wool, and a neat hat and veil, I boarded a trolley bound for my work. Across the aisle sat a young girl who I know is employed as a stenographer in an ordinary plain, every-day office in New York City. A tailor-made suit, plain hat and business shirt-waist would have been most appropriate dress. However, she loved bright colors. Her entire outfit betrayed this fact.

Her dress was an old rose taffeta, her shoes a grey suede. Her gloves white kid with black stitchings. And her hat—words fail me. It was fashioned from black chiffon with flesh-color satin flowers. Her clothes were not cheap. They were expensive. Her people, whom I know, are rather well-to-do, and the reason she works at all is in order that she may dress extravagantly.

Perhaps you think me critical. I try not to be, but I happen to know the circumstances in this case and feel sure that she was dressed too elaborately for the occasion.

No doubt she wondered why I was not "dolled out" in better style. At any rate she gazed at my poor dark blue scathingly. With the money she spent for her somewhat overdone outfit she might have purchased a beautiful tailor-made suit, plain hat with attractive lines, and a suitable striped silk shirt waist. I admire her for working when she does not have to. That shows she is not indolent, at any rate. Yet she would have been far more attractive to me, for one, had she been garbed less gaudily.

Business is exactly what it means business. Semi-evening clothes are not business. There's a time and place for everything in this old world of ours, even for old rose taffeta dresses. However that place does not happen to be a counting room or office.

HEAD STUFFED FROM CATARRH OR A COLD

Says Cream Applied in Nostrils Opens Air Passages Right Up.

Instant relief—no waiting. Your clogged nostrils open right up; the air passages of your head clear and you can breathe freely. No more hawking, sniffling, blowing, headache, dryness. No struggling for breath at night; your cold or catarrh disappears.

Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist now. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic, healing cream in your nostrils. It penetrates through every air passage of the head, soothes the inflamed or swollen mucous membrane and relief comes instantly.

It's just fine. Don't stay stuffed up with a cold or nasty catarrh.

With The Churches

Christian Science services will be held Sunday at 224 W. Ninth street. The public is invited.

Elder D. E. W. Holland of Connersville will preach Saturday evening and Sunday morning and evening at the Primitive Baptist church.

The Epworth League at the St. Paul's M. E. church will be in charge of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ross and the Rev. W. M. Whitsitt. There will also be a duet by Miss Edith Buell and Miss Norma Smith. Meets at six o'clock.

The Rev. Moody Edwards will preach at the Sexton Christian church Saturday evening and Sunday. Inasmuch as this is the first visit of the Rev. Mr. Edwards to the church, it is desired that there be a large congregation to greet him.

Main Street Christian church: Bible school at 9:15 a. m. Recognition Day will be observed in honor of the former officers of the school. Preaching at 10:30 a. m. by the pastor, subject "Jack the Giant Killer." This will be a special sermon to children. Preaching at 7:00 p. m., subject, "The Wisest Work in the World." All are welcome.

All of the regular services of the St. Paul's M. E. church will be held on the Sabbath. Sunday School at 9:15; preaching by the pastor at 10:30 and 7 o'clock. These will be evangelistic services. In addition, there will be a union meeting of the women and girls of all the churches at 2:30 in the afternoon. The address will be by Mrs. H. M. Ross.

Services at the First Presbyterian church Sunday will be as follows: 7 a. m., "Quiet Hour;" 9:30 Bible school; 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m., divine worship with sermons by Dr. F. W. Grossman and special music by the choir. Dr. Grossman's daughter will speak at the C. E. meeting at 6 p. m. A union meeting will be held at this church Sunday afternoon at 2:30 for young people at which Dr. Grossman and his daughter will speak.

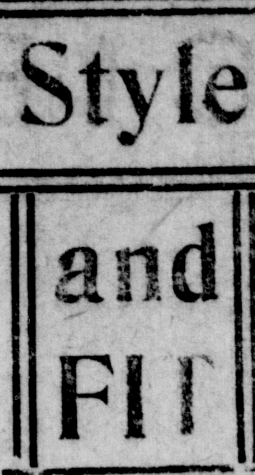

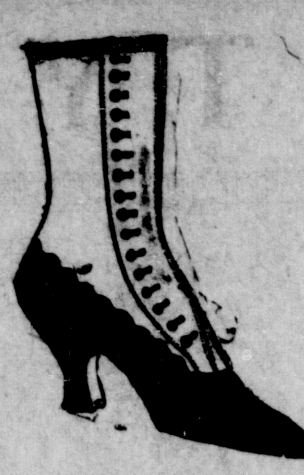

The U. P. Sabbath school will meet at 9:30. The Rev. David D. Dodds who is assisting the pastor in evangelistic meetings will preach at both services. At 10:45 his theme will be "The Greatest of All Questions." At 7:00 p. m. his subject will be "The King's Ferry Boat." Dr. Dodds will also address a union men's meeting in the Church on Sabbath afternoon at 2:30. He will continue the evangelistic services throughout each evening of next week. A cordial invitation is extended to all not worshipping elsewhere, to attend any or all of these meetings. The Intermediate Y. P. C. U. will meet Sabbath evening at six o'clock.

social fabric would undergo a change. There would be no sheriff, jail, courthouses and a lot of others."
The text of Dr. Dodd's at the U. P. church last night was "Son Remember," Luke 16:25. He said in part: "In this remarkable parable we are carried beyond the confines of the present life. The curtain of time is lifted and we catch a glimpse of eternity and the functions of the life beyond. This is one of the most awful of the Saviour's parables. It is worthy of notice how often the Saviour referred to the doctrine of future rewards and punishments. No other teacher ever said more about death, judgment and eternity than Jesus. The story itself consists of a series of contrasts with a practical application from them. The contrast is carried throughout. It begins in time and is carried out into the future state. Here we have six scenes. Two scenes in Life, two scenes in Death, and two scenes in Eternity.

"First, Two scenes in Life. Here we have presented two characters—the rich man and Lazarus. Here we have the sharp and shocking diversity between the prodigal abundance of the rich man's dress and fare, and the squalid misery of the diseased beggar. He is not condemned because he was rich. Riches are a blessing. Every man should get all the money he can if he gets it honestly and uprightly. But as Robert E. Speer has said 'He should not can all he gets.' This man is a typical instance of thoughtless indifference to the claims of others. He was self-centered, sordid, of the earth. The great questions to him were not, What shall I do to be saved?; How shall I be just before God?; what can I do to help my fellowmen?—But, What shall I eat; and what shall I drink, and wherewithal shall I be clothed? Don't condemn him too quickly. Hosts of eminently respectable people are spending their lives in the same way.

"This brings us to the second character, the beggar, the homeless man, no inheritance has he received from an earthly estate. He is a child of need, without food without rainment, without protection, not having even a mud walled cottage to protect him from the piercing cold, the teeming rain and biting frost. Such are the scenes in life, riches and poverty, pleasure and suffering, festivity and starvation.

"This brings us to note the two scenes in death. The beggar died. No notice was taken of the beggar's burial. There was no great funeral oration. But mark you a retinue of angels took charge of the man who passed out of the tabernacle of flesh and bore him into the presence of God. The angels were his pall bearers. Every saint will be brought home to glory, not only safe but honorable. The soul of the neglected beggar was presented to God without spot or wrinkle. Verse 22 says the rich man died and was buried. Riches, affluence, earthly glory can not ward off disease. Death does not favor the rich for his riches. Death is no respecter of persons. Yes, Dives is dead. Both he and Lazarus are gone. But does death end all? The Bible says, No.

"This leads us to consider in the third place, the two scenes in Eternity. Life is important. It is a real thing: What I am now may concern both myself and others, but the all-momentous question is, What shall I be in eternity? What shall be my future condition? Poverty and affliction are endurable if we have the prospects of eternal blessing. But riches and sensual pleasure can have no attraction, if they are linked inseparably with endless woe.

"Let us now follow the rich man and Lazarus into the eternal world.

EAT LESS MEAT IF BACK HURTS

Take a glass of Salts to flush Kidneys if Bladder bothers you—Drink lots of water.

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish; clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.
The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.
Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.

Our Saviour has drawn aside the curtains, and we are permitted to behold them in their fixed estate as the inhabitants of eternal things. The Bible teaches us that those who are saved will enter at once upon their inheritance, and those who are lost shall pass into perdition immediately. Grasp the meaning of this fact. Stop a moment. Long before the shades have been drawn, long before the loved ones have left the room, before the undertaker has been summoned, before the telegrams have been sent, you will have passed on into the inheritance to be unchangeably yours through all eternity. What will that mean if you are saved? Lazarus in the abodes of the blest! O, what a vision! Glorious revelations, blessed reunions, unspeakable raptures.

"Dives in hell lifted up his eyes in torment. O, the helplessness and the horror and the heartache, the despair that must come in the first minute after death to one who faces such a future. How came he there? By choice.

"I have held before you the rewards of Lazarus and the overthrow and destruction of Dives. Make your choice. I beseech you choose between the angelic escort and the parched tongue; the fountains of God and the waterless desert; a glorious heaven and a burning hell. In the name of my Master I ask you to choose."

Amusements

The Gem offers the five act feature "Soul-Mates" for the program tonight. William Russell and an all-star cast are featured. It is said to be a big story with plenty of romance and action. Tomorrow matinee and night Mary Fuller will be seen in the three act drama "The Cheaters."

William Farnum and Betty Shade will be seen in "The Man From Bitter Roots" at the Princess tonight. It is a story that deals with primitive life in the mountains and in society as well. One of the Christy comedies, "Some Kid" will be shown. Alice Brady and Holbrook Blinn will appear in "The Ballet Girl" and another Christy comedy will be shown. House Peters and Gail Kane will have the leading parts in "The Velvet Paw" Monday night.

Court Contention he Was Chosen—Last Testimony

The county commissioners this afternoon sustained the election of James Shanahan as road supervisor in District No. 2 Rushville township and found against Ora Cline, who brought the election contest, seeking to have the election of Shanahan declared void and himself elected.

The action of the commissioners came after about two hours' deliberation on the case. The case was completed at noon today and at three o'clock this afternoon the decision had been made public. It is understood that the commissioners took a secret ballot and the result was unanimously in favor of Shanahan. The case has attracted more attention than any case in recent years and developed into a warm fight between the north half and the south half of the road district.

It was the first time in the history of the county that a contest developed over such a minor office and this tended to lend interest to the case. The case will not end in the commissioners' court as an appeal will be taken to the circuit court. This was stated definitely by the attorneys for Cline immediately following the decision.

The defense introduced a total of 26 witnesses who testified to voting for Shanahan. One witness, who would have testified to voting for Shanahan, is visiting in Kentucky, making a total of 27 votes accounted for by Shanahan. There were 29 men swore they voted for Cline.

According to the returns, Shanahan received 39 votes. Cline claimed he had twelve votes that were either counted for Shanahan or were not counted. The question before the commissioners hinged on these twelve votes. There was no evidence introduced tending to show the men who voted for Dagler.

The evidence was all completed by ten o'clock this morning and then the closing argument before the board took place. The defense contended that the ballots were the best evidence in determining who was elected and pointed out that the men who voted for Shanahan had their ballots to show for it while the men who swore they voted for Cline had no evidence of the fact. "This is an unfortunate case," said George W. Young, "over a small office. The successful candidate can only make $100 a year."

In his argument to the board Mr. Young contended that the plaintiff had attempted by inference to show that W. A. Alexander had pulled out the votes cast for Cline and substituted those of Shanahan. He declared there was no evidence along this line and if there had been any fraud it had not been proven. "Mr. Alexander is as pure as Caesar's wife," declared Mr. Young.

John Kiplinger, for the plaintiff, stated that to prove fraud it was necessary to take the circumstances into consideration. "The circumstances," said Mr. Kiplinger, "show that fraud is sticking out of this thing from one end to the other." Mr. Kiplinger stated that it was only natural for the people of the south half to want a road supervisor as it was to their advantage and stated that it was not peculiar that the twenty-nine men should come into court and testify to voting for Cline. He then recalled the recount of the votes which showed one less vote for Shanahan than he received at the

BRIEF RESPITE FROM THE COLD

Following Slight Rise in Temperature Tonight, There Will be Another Drop Tomorrow

FIVE BELOW LAST NIGHT

Very little relief from the present cold wave is promised by Elwood Kirkwood, county observer, though slightly rising temperature is anticipated tonight. He said the barometer this afternoon indicated warmer weather but that the appearance of the clouds made him think that any increase in temperature would be short-lived and that it would be followed by another cold wave. This squared with the Indiana weather bureau's prediction.

The government thermometer at Mauzy registered 5 below zero last night and this morning at 7 o'clock had risen to 10 above. At 1:30 o'clock this afternoon the temperature was 20 above zero. The temperature here at the same hour was 21.

LEE SENT LETTERS OVER HIS OWN NAME

Stenographer at Democratic Headquarters Says They Were Written on Progressive Letterheads

GOVERNOR'S PROBE STARTS

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 12.—Taking of testimony in the hearing on charges against Edwin M. Lee, member of the public service commission, was started today after Gov. Goodrich again refused the request of attorneys for Lee that the case be continued.

The governor in denying the request declared that the question to be determined was whether or not Lee was appointed to the commission as a progressive while he was really a democrat in violation of the law. He stated that this was not a question of law but of facts which could be decided immediately by testimony.

Attorneys for the commissioner declared that the act under which Lee's removal is asked confers judicial powers on the governor contrary to the constitution.

Gertrude Greenberg, a stenographer, employed at the democratic headquarters in the last campaign, was the first witness. She testified that she mailed about 1,000 letters written on letterheads of the progressive party with Lee's name signed. She said the signature was made with a rubber stamp.

CARTHAGE MAN FINED.

Frank Miller of Carthage entered a plea of guilty to a charge of provoking in circuit court today and was fined one dollar and costs. He was indicted by the grand jury in the batch of twenty returned this week. His arrest accounted for sixteen of the twenty indictments. Miller was alleged to have provoked James Draper, owner of a meat market in Carthage.

BOYS AND GIRLS RECEIVE MEDALS

Knightstown Home Boy is Winner in Amateur Dairyman Contest
Conducted by Purdue.

FOR THIS STATE DISTRICT

Much of Money Going For Textiles
is Unwisely Spent, Short Course
Speaker Declares.

Lafayette, Ind., Jan. 12.—Four hundred boys and girls took part in the 1916 dairy club contest and today at the Farmers' Short Course at Purdue University, the last day of regular instruction, medals were presented to the winners. It was one of the most interesting features of the day's program which was one of many interesting events. The presentation of medals took place at the second day's session of the Indiana State Dairy Association convention.

Guy Aders of Spencer County is the champion amateur dairyman of the state, having been declared the winner of first place in the 1916 contest. Second place went to Gen. Russell of Frankfort. Young Aders, in addition to receiving the championship medal, will be sent to Washington, D. C., to call on President Wilson, going at the expense of the Indiana Silo Company which offered the trip to the boy or girl standing highest in the southern Indiana district. Young Russell will go to Washington at the expense of Schlosser Brothers, creamery men.

In the eastern Indiana district Theodore Robins, a boy from the Indiana Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans' Home at Knightstown and Anson Linsey of Economy, Ind., were the winners. Miss Nellie Hall of Plymouth won the northern Indiana championship and the South Bend Creamery Company Scholarship. About 40 young people in all attended the Short Course this week as a reward for winning high places in the contest, the scholarships being worth $25 each and being offered by various creameries, banks, merchants and farmers' institutes over the state.

The girls' and boys' dairy club contest was such a great success during the past year that it is expected nearly 1,000 young people will enlist in the 1917 contest. Each boy and girl keeps a record of dairy cows and also feeds and cares for the cows. Each contestant feeds the dairy animals in the old unscientific way for one month and then for a month feeds according to the best approved methods. The records show the improvement in the quantity and quality of the milk and cream the second month. Then each contestant writes a summary of the two months' work. The record of young Aders, the state champion, showed that as a result of proper care and feeding of dairy cows he increased his profit on five cows $70.41 in a month, the profit for the first month under the unimproved method being $109.51 and the profit for the second month under the improved system being $179.92.

Intensive Farming.

To show Indiana dairymen what the people on the Channel Islands in the English channel 90 miles off the coast of England, have accomplished in intensive farming, Charles L. Hill of Rosendale, Wis., told the members of the dairy association today that one of these islands, Guernsey, was the only place in the world where no manure was wasted. The agricultural exports from the Island of Jersey with a population of 45,000 and an area of 15,000 acres, one half of which is unoccupied, amount to $350 an acre annually from every acre included in the island. Its agriculture is the most intensive of any place in the world.

ABNER INLOW SUCCEUMS

Dies at Age of 79 Years North of
Homer of Pneumonia

Abner Inlow, 79 years, died yesterday afternoon at four o'clock at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Oliver Fletcher, north of Homer, following a long illness from senility and pneumonia. Mr. Inlow was a former resident of Waldron but had made his home for the past few years with his daughter. Mrs. Fletcher is the only survivor. The funeral services will be conducted Saturday morning at 10:30 o'clock in the Christian Union church at Homer and burial will take place in the Hurst cemetery.

FOURTEEN MORE BILLS RETURNED

Grand Jury Turns Out Another Batch
Today, Bringing Total For Term
up to Seventy-nine.

NONE MADE PUBLIC TODAY

The grand jury returned an additional batch of 14 indictments this afternoon, bringing the total number for the term up to seventy-nine. The grand jury had two additional witnesses to examine, but no more indictments were expected. Unless the grand jury is needed this will be the last session for the present term.

The grand jury met today with but five members present, John Jordan, one of the members, being ill. There was some talk of adjourning for the day, but it was found to be legal to continue the session with but five members.

None of the fourteen indictments returned today was made public and will not be until the arrests are made. Judge Sparks ordered the bench warrants issued.

TWO IMPORTANT BILLS INTRODUCED

Measures Providing For Votes For
Women and State Wide Prohibition Before Legislature.

W. R. JINNETT HAS TWO BILLS

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 12.—Prohibition and woman suffrage bills were presented to the Indiana legislature today. The dry bill backed by the Indiana dry federation was presented in the senate by Thomas Dorrell of Greenwood and in the house by Frank E. Wright of Randolph county.

Lieut. Gov. Bush sent the dry bill to the senate committee on rights and franchises instead of public morals as was expected. This committee is decidedly dry in its tendencies.

The prohibition bill would prohibit the manufacture or sale of liquor within the state after January 1, 1918 except for medicinal purposes.

The administration bill creating a highway commission was introduced by Senator Dobyns of Greensburg in the upper house and by Luke Duffy of Indianapolis in the lower. Dobyns represents Rush, Decatur and Hancock.

Representative Jinnett of Manilla, Rush county, presented two bills in the house, one providing for abolishment of the office of legal clerk to the public service commission and the other limiting the salary of the quartermaster general to $800 a year. By these bills Rep. Jinnett hoped to save the state $7,000 a year. The legal clerk receives $8,000 and the quartermaster $1,800.

Men's and Women's Big Meetings
Will be Held and Also One for

EVANGELISTS TO TAKE PART

The Rev. J. W. McFall of Connersville Preaches at M. E. Church
on Christ's Saving Power

Three special meetings in connection with the evangelistic meetings being held at three churches will take place Sunday. There will be a men's big meeting at the U. P. church, to be addressed by Dr. D. D. Dodds; a women's big meeting to be conducted by Mrs. Harry Ross, wife of the evangelistic singer, at St. Paul's M. E. church; a meeting for young people at the First Presbyterian church to be addressed by Dr. F. W. Grossman and his daughter, Ethel Lee, who is in charge of the young people's work of the Presbyterian church in Indiana. Dr. Grossman will speak on "Child Training" and ladies society will sing.

Dr. Dodds took the parable of Lazarus and Dives as the basis of his sermon at the U. P. church last night. Tonight he will preach on the subject, "A Sensation in Heaven." A large audience was present last evening. At the First Presbyterian church last night Dr. Grossman based his remarks upon Matthew 22:37, the chief commandment, supreme love of God.

There was a very good attendance at the St. Paul's M. E. church last evening. The song service included a solo by Harry Ross "Thru a Line" and a duet by Mr. and Mrs. Ross. The sermon was by the Rev. J. W. McFall of the First Methodist church of Connersville. Taking for his text, "Thou shalt call his name Jesus for he shall save his people from their sins," he delivered a forceful address. He analyzed the words "sins," "their," "save," and "Jesus," bringing out the fact that it would be a bright world were it not for the word "sin," and showing the many results of it. By "their" sins the speaker distinguished between the sins we own and those we possess; that is the suffering we have from our own sins and those of someone else. "Sin is a big word but save is a bigger one," continued the speaker, proving the all-saving power of God; and in dealing with the last word he urged all to depend upon Jesus to save and forgive. His points were brought out with appropriate examples and stories.

"Christ has reasons for stating that love to God was the chief commandment," stated Dr. Grossman at the First Presbyterian. "They may have been such as these: the commandment was just, sufficient, efficient, universal in its application, essential and the results produced."

Under the latter heading, the minister developed a practical address, saying that love enlarges the heart and hatred contracts, and that the more one loves, the more he can live.

"He who loves God," he continued, "must have capacity to take in the infinite. In our littleness we only love those who love us, which is easy to do. If we love God we must love our enemy, which means considerable exercise, but the very effort means development of the capacity for more love."

"Another result is that we become more like those we love and are influenced by that which we admire. If a man admires skepticism, he becomes a skeptic. If he enjoys impurity, he becomes impure. If he delights in dishonesty, he becomes dishonest. If we love Christianity, we become Christians. If we love God we become Godlike."

"If we loved God supremely, and our neighbor as ourselves, our whole

THE RUSH COUNTY FARMERS

Live Stock Insurance Company.

To be run on same plan as the Rush County Farmers Fire Insurance Company, losses pro-rated and assessments made.

Insure your horses, mules, cattle against death from any cause except fire and lightning.

It will be solely a company of you Rush county farmers run exclusively by and organized by you on day of organization, as everything proposed that day must meet with your approval by a majority before it can become part of the by-laws.

It will come as near being insurance at cost as it is possible to make it, as you will only pay for the actual loss plus the light expense of running the business affairs of the company.

Why can't this organization be just as much of a success as the Farmers Fire, the different telephone exchanges throughout the county?

In fact, there never has been a co-operative organization of the Rush county farmers but what has made a success and there is a reason—they are on the square.

You will note that application membership blank coupon is brief and the reason is that we are merely suggesting to you and soliciting your membership, because on February 1st, 1917, the day of organization you have a voice as to all the details of the by-laws and rules under which the company shall be run.

You will note in application for membership coupon the charter membership fee is $3.00. It will no doubt be $5.00 after the company is organized same as Rush County Fire Insurance Company fee, so get in as charter, and in years to come you can say I am a charter member.

Clip out application for membership coupon and mail to L. R. Webb, Rushville, R. R. 3 and he will immediately notify you that your membership has been accepted. We already have quite a big membership subscribed and hope you will lend a helping hand in making this one of the big organizations of Rush county.

L. R. WEBB,
CLEN MILLER,
Organizers.

In filling in blank for the amount of insurance desired for first year will say the average farmer is taking about $500.00.

Application for Membership

I hereby apply for charter membership in the Rush County Farmers Live Stock Insurance Company of Rush County, Indiana, for which I agree to pay on or before Thursday, February 1, 1917, the sum of $3.00 to Clen Miller, at which time he agrees to organize the Rush County Farmers Live Stock Insurance Company, which sum shall be used by him to pay the costs of incorporating and organizing said company.

Nothing to be insured but horses and cattle. Anything insured in other companies, the loss shall be pro-rated between this and other or others. To be run on same plan as Rush County Farmers Fire Insurance company. Losses pro-rated and assessment made.

It is agreed that a meeting shall be held on said first day of February, 1917, at which time said charter members shall organize by the election of officers for the ensuing year, and adopt by-laws.

I further agree to carry $_____ insurance in said company for the first year after its organization.

Sore throat may mean any number of disagreeable and perhaps dangerous things to come. Ward-off sore throat by using Turpo liberally. Rub it IN. The turpentine penetrates; the camphor and menthol cool and soothe the surface. Turpo takes the place of turpentine and lard—it's the old-fashioned remedy in a newer, better form. It has many other uses besides relieving colds—it heals cuts, burns, bruises, sprains; and relieves headache, carache, neuralgia, and other aches and pains. Buy Turpo at any drug store. Kicked by Carranza.

After months of palavering and dickering with Carranza we are right where we were before it commenced.

We are in the position of the dog that has just been kicked and doesn't possess the nerve to bite back.

General Carranza has officially and definitely refused to ratify the protocol signed by the American and Mexican commissioners, and by this act has again demonstrated the Mexican contempt for everything American.

Kicked! Just plain kicked again! If the American people have no pride left—if the honor of our country and the lives of our people mean nothing—What about the American Pocketbooks. Even the most craven wretch on earth is sensitive to the welfare of his purse.

It would be of interest to know just what this Mexican fiasco is costing the country per day. With Pershing and his twelve thousand men in Mexico, with thousands and thousands of National Guardsmen sucking their thumbs on the border, with every available officer and man in the regular army doing police duty along the Rio Grande, the cost is piling away into the millions.

The American taxpayer is putting up this money and he gets nothing in return for it. He doesn't even gain the respect of other countries and other peoples.

Two facts are self evident. Carranza hasn't the power to take Villa if he would; he hasn't the inclination to do so if he could. Time has proven the truth of both of these statements.

Another one. Carranza hasn't the power to protect American lives and American property in Mexico. And he wouldn't if he could, for Carranza is a Mexican of Mexicans, as stubborn as a mule and as blind as a bat to all things except his own asininity.

And yet we wheedle and dandle and palaver!

We keep an army on a war footing at enormous expense to the tax pay-

PIMPLY? WELL, DON'T BE!

People Notice It. Drive Them Off with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

A pimply face will not embarrass you much longer if you get a package of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The skin should begin to clear after you have taken the tablets a few nights.

Cleanse the blood, the bowels and the liver with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the successful substitute for calomel—there's never any sickness or pain after taking them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do that which calomel does, and just as effectively, but their action is gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating.

No one who takes Olive Tablets is ever cursed with "a dark brown taste," bad breath, a dull, listless, "no good" feeling, constipation, torpid liver, bad disposition or pimply face.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color.

Dr. Edwards spent years among patients afflicted with liver and bowel complaints, and Olive Tablets are the immensely effective result.

Take one or two nightly for a week. See how much better you feel and look.

Regarding dressmaking Miss Beall told the women of the home economics section that 15 per cent of the average income was spent for clothing and that better value may be obtained if a part, at least, of the money is spent in buying materials to be made up at home. She explained how to use patterns and how to handle materials to avoid damaging them.

An informal tea for the women attending the Short Course was another feature of the program today. The students in the home economics department of Purdue were the hostesses. An exhibit of college girls' work was on display, showing samples of sewing, cooking and canning. Yesterday afternoon President and Mrs. Winthrop E. Stone of Purdue entertained the members of the Indiana Home Economics Association at a reception at the president's home.

"Prevention is the slogan of all public health work," Dr. C. B. Kern of the Indiana State Board of Health told the women at the Short Course today. Modern public health means more than just absence of disease. It may be divided into hygiene and sanitation. Women should be interested in the great work of living correctly because 95 per cent of the infectious diseases are nursed at home by mothers. Next to the children themselves the ones who suffer most are the mothers.

Prof. E. B. Hart of the University of Wisconsin told the dairymen and live stock breeders today that balanced rations meant success in feeding and breeding. Experiments, he said, had shown that the feeding of wheat as part of the ration to Short-horns and Holsteins was harmful. The work showed that there is a toxic substance in wheat and especially in the embryo of the wheat which interferes with reproduction. This can be overcome by the use of proper rations.

fitable." The early hatched cockerel sells for the highest price and is out of the way early, giving the pullets a better chance to grow. The early hatched pullet develops early and is laying in the fall and winter when prices are highest. In order to lay by October 1 Leghorns should be hatched about April 1. Incubators and brooders are necessary for hatching as the farmer does not have enough setting hens. Anyone with a

Mrs. Julia Ehrman Tells of the Big Benefits Derived From Tanlac

Fort Wayne, Ind. Jan. 11.—"I feel better in every way since taking Tanlac," said Mrs. Julia Ehrman, 60 years old, wife of Fred H. Ehrman, machinist at the Indiana Road Machine Company, who lives at 711 Frederick street.

"I had inflammatory rheumatism so severe I had to crawl up and down stairs at times. Rheumatic pains and swellings in my knees, feet and ankles bothered me. I couldn't sleep at night."

"The rheumatic pains and swellings have been greatly relieved since I have taken Tanlac and I feel better in every way now. I sleep fine now. I certainly am satisfied with the results gained from Tanlac."

Tanlac, the Master Medicine, is especially beneficial for stomach, liver and kidney trouble, catarrhal complaints, rheumatism, nervousness, sleeplessness, loss of appetite and the like. Tanlac is now sold exclusively in Rushville at F. D. Wolcott's drug store. In Arlington at Mrs. L. T. Davis's, in Carthage at J. H. McCarthy and Sons, and in Milroy at Barton and Shepherd's.

Flock of 100 hens can afford an incubator." "The old farm hen is worth caring for" said L. L. Jones. Purdue's poultry demonstration farms over the state show good results. On each of eight of these farms the chickens, properly cared for, realized a profit of $175 in a year and there were only 124 hens on a farm. Each fowl brought in a $3 a year and the net profit on each was more than $1 with all the eggs and chickens used at home as extra profit."

To fight garden and small fruit insects, P. W. Mason told his hearers today, one must keep the garden premises clean from rubbish, weeds and remnants of crops; the plants must be kept vigorous; there must be frequent cultivation; and insecticides must be used. Promptness in discovering the presence of an insect pest is important.

Tomato Growing:

That tomato growing in Indiana is profitable, was the statement made today by W. H. Stevenson, who told how to make money out of such a crop. The industry is growing rapidly in this state. The climatic conditions of the state are well adapted to tomato growing. Probably the factor which limits the profits most is the worst starting of young plants. Seed should be sown in hotbeds about March 1 to 15 and three weeks later should be transplanted. Then before outdoor planting the top of the hotbed should be taken off and the plants allowed to harden. The water supply should be cut off just before the last transplanting and when they are removed to the field the soil should be watered liberally. Tomatoes should be transplanted into a dry soil. The Purdue experiment station recommends the application of 500 pounds of a mixture of nitrate of soda, tankage, acid phosphate and potash to each acre.

The value of manure was emphasized by S. C. Jones in a lecture before the farmers today. He said that the annual production of manure in Indiana had a total value of approximately $45,000,000. It is also estimated that at least a third of this

(By M. C. Lucas, M. D.)

The general conclusions of the latest medical scientists prove that drinking of plenty of pure water both between meals and with one's meals is beneficial to health. It has also been proven by means of the X-rays and actual tests upon many healthy young men that the drinking of water with meals is not harmful to digestion. Therefore if you want to keep healthy drink plenty of pure water (not ice water.) If you ever suffer from backache, lumbago, rheumatism or any of the symptoms of kidney trouble—such as deep colored urine, sediment in urine, getting out of bed at night frequently and other troublesome effects, take a little Anuric before meals. These Anuric tablets can be obtained at almost any drug store in this country.

American men and women must guard constantly against kidney trouble, because we eat too much and all our food is rich. Our blood is filled with uric acid which the kidneys strive to filter out, they weaken from overwork, become sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and the result is kidney trouble, bladder weakness and a general decline in health. When your kidneys feel like lumps of lead, when your back hurts or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night, when you suffer with sick headache, or dizzy, nervous spells, acid stomach, or you have rheumatism when the weather is bad, ask your druggist for Anuric. Because of uric acid in over-abundance in the system, backache, pains here and there, rheumatism, gout, gravel, neuralgia and sciatica result. Anuric is more potent than lithia, and consequently you need no longer fear muscular or articular rheumatism or gout, or many other diseases which are dependent on an accumulation of uric acid within the body.—Adv.)

SOCIETY

The members of the Tri Kappa society will be entertained by Mrs. Jack Knecht at her home in North Harrison street on Monday evening.

The Coterie Club will be entertained on Monday afternoon by Mrs. C. M. George at her home in North Main street. This meeting follows the holiday recess of several weeks.

About 25 couples enjoyed the dance given in the Knights of Pythias hall last evening. Mitchell's two piece orchestra played excellent music for the informal program of dances.

In celebrating his 8th birthday, Robert Pitman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Pitman, entertained a few of his schoolmates yesterday afternoon. After a jolly afternoon at playing games, refreshments were served.

The members of the Pollyanna class of the St. Paul's M. E. Sunday School had a pitch-in supper at the church last evening, there being eight present. A delicious two course supper was served followed by music and a social good time.

The members of the D. T. Club are being entertained by their husbands this evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Frank. They are being entertained at dinner and the nature of the entertainment is being kept as a surprise.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Wilson are entertaining at their home in East Ninth street today. Mrs. Wilson's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Will Parker and family, of nine children and two grandchildren, who are making the return trip to Bever, Okla., in machines after visiting in Lexington, Ky.

Mrs. J. C. Sexton entertained at a delightful little Bridge yesterday afternoon when her guests were the members of the Grand Club. At the conclusion of the Bridge games, which occupied the greater part of the afternoon, the guests were invited into the dining room where the table was prettily decorated with a large bouquet of scarlet carnations. Here a delicious two course dinner was served. The next regular meeting of the club will be with Mrs. Will M. Sparks.

The C. W. B. M. of the Sexton Christian church held their regular monthly meeting Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Weiss. Mrs. Ode Winkler had charge of the meeting during which the following numbers were given: scripture reading and prayer by Mrs. Winkler; secretary's report and roll call by Mrs. Orville Porter; offering; prayer by Mrs. Eldsworth Kiser; bible study, Mrs. Fred Oldham; missionary letter read by Mrs. Porter; reading, "A Friend Indeed," by Mrs. Kiser; bible questions of Mrs. Earl Grubbs; hidden answers conducted by Mrs. Weiss. Visitors at the meeting were Mrs. Elbridge Jones, Miss Fern Jones and Mrs. John Lewark. The next meeting of the society will be with Mrs. Ode Winkler.

Mrs. David Marshall of west of the city was the guest of Mrs. Joseph Pugh at her home today.

Officers will be elected at the meeting of the Monday Circle to be held Monday at the home of Mrs. Roy Waggener in North Morgan street. Suggestions will also be made for the program for next year. Mrs. Parsons will read a paper on "Historical Dramas—How Authentic."

A short business meeting of the Women's Home Missionary society of the St. Paul's M. E. church was held at the church yesterday afternoon following the evangelistic meeting. Several business matters were discussed and plans were completed for sending the barrel this evening to a home missionary. The articles have been prepared by the members of the society.

The Willing Workers of the Christian church of Orange were entertained yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Kate Bowen at her home in Orange when 14 members of the society were present. During the business meeting, plans for the reception to be given this evening in the church honoring the new pastor, the Rev. Mr. Francis, were made. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess.

A literary and musical program was given at the meeting of the Social Circle of the Methodist church of Orange held with Mrs. Elmer Stevens yesterday afternoon. Those taking part in the program were Mrs. Jesse Bowen, Mrs. Will Stewart, Mrs. Etta Henry, Mrs. Grace Arnold, Mrs. Alva George, Mrs. Ernest Applegate, and Mrs. M. M. Anderson. The guests enjoyed the service of delicious refreshments. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Alva George.

Mrs. Fred Caldwell celebrated her birthday in a very pleasant manner today when a dinner was given at her home in North Morgan street in her honor. The whole affair was in the nature of a surprise that had been planned by Mr. Caldwell. An elegant turkey dinner was served at high noon at the dining table which was attractive with the color scheme of pink and white. Covers for the dinner were laid for Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Caldwell of Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Jones, Miss Helen Caldwell, Mrs. Fannie Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. Orval Herkless and daughter, Jean.

Honoring the birthday of Watson Miller, the girls belonging to the S. O. D. H. Club entertained the young men in the club last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Mahin. The hostesses served a bountiful two course pitch-in supper at 7 o'clock. The evening was spent in playing games and hearing music. Aside from the 18 club members who were present, there were several invited guests including Miss Mable Krammes, Miss Donnie Hilligoss, Miss Gladys Hill, Miss Bess Weidner, and Will English. The regular meeting of the club will be held on Thursday evening of next week with Miss Frances Thompson.

Miss Vera Winship, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Will Winship of Milroy, and Hubert Thomas, son of Merritt Thomas of near Milroy, were quietly married yesterday morning at the home of the bride's parents, the ceremony being read by the Rev. Clyde S. Black of Brookville, formerly of Milroy. Only a few friends and relatives were present. The bridal couple left immediately for a short honeymoon after which they will be at home in Greensburg where Mr. Thomas is bookkeeper for the Pulse and Porter firm.

Mrs. Thomas has been, until recently, a librarian in Cincinnati. She is a graduate of the local high school and a member of the Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority at Depauw where she also graduated. She is exceedingly popular among her many friends in and about this city.

DOES RHEUMATISM BOTHER YOU?

Many Doctors Use Musterole

So many sufferers have found relief in Musterole that you ought to try a small jar and try it. Just spread it on with the fingers. Rub it in. First you feel a gentle glow, then a delicious, cooling comfort. Musterole routs the twinges, loosens up stiffened joints and muscles. Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. It penetrates to the seat of pain and drives it away, but does not blister the tenderest skin. It takes the place of the musky, old fashioned mustard plaster. Musterole is recommended for bronchitis, croup, asthma, pleurisy, lumbago, neuralgia, sprains, bruises, stiff neck, headache and colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia).

election and then pointed out that yesterday afternoon the extra ballot appeared in the court room.

Mr. Kiplinger asked the commissioners why it was that if Shanahan had thirty-eight votes he did not produce them in court as Cline had done with his twenty-nine voters.

Late yesterday afternoon one witness was found who had voted for Shanahan without legal right. This was Esta Webb. Webb testified that he voted for Shanahan as he had been informed that he had a right to vote. Webb, on cross examination stated that he moved to the Robert A. Innis farm, northwest of the city on about November 20. He admitted that he had been a resident of this road district only about twenty days. He testified that at the presidential election he voted south of the city. He stated that if he voted without legal right he did so unintentionally as he had been informed that he had a right to vote.

During the testimony of William A. Alexander a wrangle ensued between him and John Kiplinger, attorney for Cline, which brought up an old road case. Kiplinger, attorney attempted to show that Alexander was interested in the election of Shanahan because Shanahan had stood up for Mr. Alexander in the litigation of a road case that was tried and is still pending in court. On cross-examination he admitted that he and Shanahan were good friends and that Shanahan had testified for him in the road litigation but denied that this had any particular thing to do with his supporting

Johnson says

Unless you are a physician or druggist you have no idea how much kidney trouble there is.

Elderly people suffer the most, because they have neglected themselves most.

The time to treat kidney trouble is when it is first suspected, thus preventing it, usually, from growing more serious.

The best "first aid to the kidneys" is

5 1/2 Ounce Bottle Trial 50 Cents

Large Size Bottle 12 Ounce $1.00

Buchu and Palmetto Compound

which contains Buchu, Saw Palmetto, Corn Silk, Couch Grass, Uva Ursi and Potassium acetate.

Any one who knows will tell you that science has not yet revealed any better combination of kidney remedies for acute kidney troubles.

People send to us for it from all parts of the county, and we know by what they say that it does them great good.

Let us send you a trial bottle, take it as directed and you'll get results. We guarantee it to you.

him in the road supervisors election. The argument between Alexander and Kiplinger, became so warm that the board of commissioners put a stop to it by declaring it had nothing to do with the case in question.

Mr. Alexander stated that he was the inspector at the election and described the canvass of the vote after the polls were closed. He stated that after the ballots had been counted the ballots were placed back in the box and a string tied around the box. This box was then taken home by him and after supper on the night of Dec. 16 his son, Donald Alexander brought the box of ballots to the office of J. V. Young, trustee. Mr. Alexander was emphatic in his denial of any tampering with the ballots.

"If at any time after the ballots were counted you took out twelve ballots belonging to Cline and placed twelve votes for Shanahan in the box you may so state!" asked Geo. W. Young, attorney for Shanahan. "No sir, I did not," declared Alexander.

On cross-examination Mr. Alexander stated that he had promised William Dagler he would vote for him but declared when the votes began coming in so fast for Shanahan he decided to switch and cast his ballot for Shanahan. Mr. Alexander not getting many votes because Dagler's ballots were printed and were of a different color from the other ballots. He testified that he voted along in the middle of the afternoon. The poll book showed that he was the thirty-ninth man to vote.

A Bad Dress For Business.

The other morning I decided to journey to the Vitagraph studios in the trolley. Somehow I just felt as though I wanted to be among people who feel the jostle and hustle of the work-a-day world and to knock elbows with my fellow men.

Donning a dark blue chiffon broadcloth dress embroidered in dark shades of wool, and a neat hat and veil, I boarded a trolley bound for my work. Across the aisle sat a young girl who I know is employed as a stenographer in an ordinary plain, every-day office in New York City. A tailor-made suit, plain hat and business shirt-waist would have been most appropriate dress. However, she loved bright colors. Her entire outfit betrayed this fact.

Her dress was an old rose taffeta, her shoes a gray suede. Her gloves white kid with black stitchings. And her hat—words fail me. It was fashioned from black chiffon with flesh-color satin flowers. Her clothes were not cheap. They were expensive. Her people, whom I know, are rather well-to-do, and the reason she works at all is in, order that she may dress extravagantly.

Perhaps you think me critical. I try not to be, but I happen to know the circumstances in this case and feel sure that she was dressed too elaborately for the occasion.

No doubt she wondered why I was not "dressed out" in better style. At any rate she gazed at my poor dark blue scathingly. With the money she spent for her somewhat overdone outfit she might have purchased a beautiful tailor-made suit, plain hat with attractive lines, and a suitable striped silk shirt waist. I admire her for working when she does not have to. That shows she is not indolent, at any rate. Yet she would have been far more attractive to me, for one, had she been garbed less gaudily.

Business is exactly what it means—business. Semi-evening clothes are not business. There's a time and place for everything in this old world of ours, even for old rose taffeta dresses. However that place does not happen to be a counting room or office.

HEAD STUFFED FROM CATARRH OR A COLD

Says Cream Applied in Nostrils Opens Air Passages Right Up.

Instant relief—no waiting. Your closed nostrils open right up; the air passages of your head clear and you can breathe freely. No more hawking, sniffling, blowing, headache, dryness. No struggling for breath at night; your cold or catarrh disappears.

Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist now. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic, healing cream in your nostrils. It penetrates through every air passage of the head, soothes the inflamed or swollen mucous membranes and relief comes instantly.

It's just fine. Don't stay stuffed up with a cold or nasty catarrh.

Style and Fit

Why is it that one will sometimes see a shoe of beautiful design in the window which, when tried on looks shabby and unkept? A great many times it is because the shoe is made only for style and eye attraction, with no thought given to its fit. After style, fit is the all important feature.

social fabric would undergo a change. There would be no Sheriff, jail, courthouses and a lot of others.

The text of Dr. Dodd's at the U. P. church last night was "Son Remember," Luke 16:25. He said in part: "In this remarkable parable we are carried beyond the confines of the present life. The curtain of time is lifted and we catch a glimpse of eternity and the functions of the life beyond. This is one of the most awful of the Saviour's parables. It is worthy of notice how often the Saviour referred to the doctrine of future rewards and punishments. No other teacher ever said more about death, judgment and eternity than Jesus. The story itself consists of a series of contrasts with a practical application from them. The contrast is carried throughout. It begins in time and is carried out

Hard Chronic Cough Made Well by Delicious Vinol

Crestline, Ohio—"I contracted a hard, chronic cough, and was weak, nervous and run-down. I have a small family of three, and it was hard for me to do my work. I took different medicines without benefit. Finally I heard about Vinol, and it has restored me to health and strength, my cough is all gone and I feel fine"—Mrs. H. H. CARLISLE.

into the future state. Here we have six scenes. Two scenes in Life, two scenes in Death, and two scenes in Eternity.

"First, Two scenes in Life. Here we have presented two characters—the rich man and Lazarus. Here we have the sharp and shocking diversity between the prodigal abundance of the rich man's dress and fare, and the squalid misery of the diseased beggar. He is not condemned because he was rich. Riches are a blessing. Every man should get all the money he can if he gets it honestly and uprightly. But as Robert E. Speer has said 'He should not can all he gets.' This man is a typical instance of thoughtless indifference to the claims of others. He was self-centered, sordid, of the earth. The great questions to him were not, What shall I do to be saved? How shall I be just before God? What can I do to help my fellowmen?—But, What shall I eat; and what shall I drink, and wherewithal shall I be clothed? Don't condemn him too quickly. Hosts of eminently respectable people are spending their lives in the same way.

"This brings us to the second character, the beggar, the homeless man, no inheritance has he received from an earthly estate. He is a child of need, without food without shelter, without protection, not having even a mud walled cottage to protect him from the piercing cold, the teeming rain and biting frost. Such are the scenes in life, riches and poverty, pleasure and suffering, festivity and starvation.

"This brings us to note the two scenes in death. The beggar died. No notice was taken of the beggar's burial. There was no great funeral oration. But mark you a refuge of angels took charge of the man who passed out of the tabernacle of flesh and bore him into the presence of God. The angels were his pall bearers. Every saint will be brought home to glory, not only safe but honorable. The soul of the neglected beggar was presented to God without spot, or wrinkle. Verse 22 says the rich man died and was buried. Riches, affluence, earthly glory can not ward off disease. Death does not favor the rich for his riches. Death is no respecter of persons. Yes, Dives is dead. Both he and Lazarus are gone. But does death end all? The Bible says, No.

"This leads us to consider in the third place, the two scenes in Eternity. Life is important. It is a real thing. What I am now may concern both myself and others, but the all-momentous question is, What shall I be in eternity? What shall be my future condition? Poverty and affliction are endurable if we have the prospects of eternal blessing. But riches and sensual pleasure can have no attraction, if they are linked inseparably with endless woe.

"Let us now follow the rich man and Lazarus into the eternal world.

EAT LESS MEAT IF BACK HURTS

Take a glass of Salts to flush Kidneys if Bladder bothers you—Drink lots of water.

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked, get sluggish, clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.

Our Saviour has drawn aside the curtains, and we are permitted to behold them in their fixed estate as the inhabitants of eternal things. The Bible teaches us that those who are saved will enter at once upon their inheritance, and those who are lost shall pass into perdition immediately. Grasp the meaning of this fact. Stop a moment. Long before the shades have been drawn, long before the loved ones have left the room, before the undertaker has been summoned, before the telegrams have been sent, you will have passed on into the inheritance to be unchangeably yours through all eternity. What will that mean if you are saved? Lazarus in the abodes of the blest! O, what a vision! Glorious revelations, blessed reunions, unspeakable raptures.

"Dives in hell lifted up his eyes in torment. O, the helplessness and the horror and the heartache, the despair that must come in the first minute after death to one who faces such a future. How came he there? By choice.

"I have held before you the rewards of Lazarus and the overthrow and destruction of Dives. Make your choice. I beseech you choose between the angelic escort and the parched tongue; the fountains of God and the waterless desert; a glorious heaven and a burning hell. In the name of my Master I ask you to choose."

Amusements

The Gem offers the five act feature "Soul-Mates" for the program tonight. William Russell and an all-star cast are featured. It is said to be a big story with plenty of romance and action. Tomorrow matinee and night Mary Fuller will be seen in the three act drama "The Cheaters."

William Farnum and Betty Shade will be seen in "The Man From Bitter Roots" at the Princess tonight. It is a story that deals with primitive life in the mountains and in society as well. One of the Christley comedies, "Some Kid" will be shown. Alice Brady and Holbrook Blinn will appear in "The Ballet Girl" and another Christley comedy will be shown. House Peters and Gail Kane will have the leading parts in "The Velvet Pav" Monday night.
